YEAR 2015 APPLICATION COLEMAN A. YOUNG FOUNDATION (CAYF) SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Coleman A. Young Foundation, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt, nonprofit, charitable organization founded in 1982 to develop leadership among Detroit youth through college scholarships, mentoring and other supports for personal growth and development.

Coleman A. Young Foundation (CAYF) Scholars Program

CAYF strives to reach as many students as possible, who are confirmed to have leadership potential by teachers, guidance counselors, and community leaders, are committed to Detroit, and who may not be able to attend college without CAYF's assistance. The Scholars Program provides academic mentoring, and counseling to all its scholars.

Eligibility

Applicants must be residents of Detroit who will graduate from a Detroit high school - public, private or parochial - during the award year. Applicants also must:

- Plan to attend a four-year accredited college or university in Michigan or Historically Black College or University (HBCU).
- Meet all admission requirements of the college or university.
- Have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 or better (consideration is given to students with lower grade point averages when the potential to succeed and the determination to achieve are evident).
- Demonstrated financial need (proof of annual family income is required). A 2014 W-2 tax form filed with IRS is required to accompany this application and must be signed by a parent or guardian. Application is not accepted without this information.
- Complete a scholarship application and supply the required attachments.
- Proof of residence in Detroit.

The Scholarship Award

CAYF awards scholarships of up to $5,000 annually for a maximum of $20,000 over 4 or 5 years to eligible graduating high school seniors. Funds must be used to pay for expenses related to attending college including tuition, fees, room and board, books, and transportation.

Notification of Finalists

Scholar semi-finalist notifications will deliver via e-mail and postal service on March 23, 2015. Semi-finalists must participate in an interview process. Interview rounds are scheduled throughout the day on Wednesday, April 1, 2015 and at assigned times on Wednesday, April 15, 2015, and Wednesday, April 22, 2015. Scholarship recipients must participate in the 2015 Annual Awards Experience on Tuesday May 12, 2015, at the MGM Grand Detroit.

Renewal of Awards

Scholarship awards of up to $5,000 per year are renewable for a maximum of $20,000 over 4 or 5 years. Recipients must continue to 1) demonstrate financial need, 2) maintain satisfactory academic performance, 3) demonstrate their ability to succeed, with proper tutoring, counseling and guidance, and 4) maintain a high level of community commitment and involvement.
